Pray for and follow along with our youth at Triennium:

Day 1, July 16: TUNE MY HEART PSALM 100: Come into God's presence!

Here you are! Tune your hearts to get ready for all that God is going to share. You are right where God wants you to be. Called: Why are we here? What is God about to do?

Day 2, July 17: JESUS SOUGHT ME LUKE 19: Zacchaeus

We may think that we are seeking God, but the whole while God is seeking us

Confronted: How is God seeking us – often unaware?

Day 3, July 18: PRONE TO WANDER LUKE 15: Lost and Found parables

We often drift or actively move away from God and God's purposes.

Confession: What are the things that make us wander?

Day 4, July 19: HERE'S MY HEART MATTHEW 14: Peter stepping out of the boat

When we offer our lives to God we are transformed. Love the Lord with all your heart, soul, mind and strength. Commitment: Where's your heart? What are your passions?

Day 5, July 20: TAKE AND SEAL IT ACTS 1:6-11: The Ascension

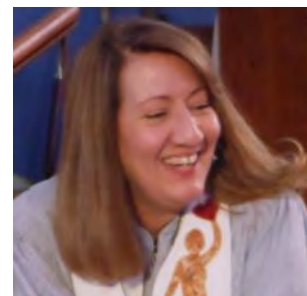

The ending is only the beginning. God sends us out from this place to make a difference in the world. Commissioned: What now?

It is the Mission of First Presbyterian Church of San Bernardino, inspired by the Holy Spirit, to proclaim the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through worship and celebration, and teaching and learning, so that lives are transformed and members are encouraged to use their special gifts to care for and value, as God's Beloved, each other and the community in which we live.

Pastor's Perspective...

Unexpected Joy

Let's begin with joy- as this is always where our faith begins: with the love of God which is more than we ask or even imagine. The Leonard scholarship committee deputized Cyndi Pringle and Lynda Savage to take a look at the Memo written when the fund was established. It has not been updated since 1986 (on a dot-matrix printer...) and we knew there were several ways we were out of compliance with the original document (for example, the Memo suggests we keep the donor anonymous – but we've been telling Eadie's story each June for at least a decade, and it suggests a member of the Leonard family sit on the committee and help advise as we select the scholars- But this has not been possible for many years).

What Cyndi and Lynda (and also Phill!) discovered on a close reading is that once scholarships have been given, if there is additional money in the fund (above and beyond the 100K principal) it may be spent on "capital improvements". Turns out there is about $380K in the fund, so we have found the money to pay the $70,000 of roofing costs! This is a huge relief, and also a source of great tenderness and joy for me. Bill and Bobbie continue to bless and shelter and love us- or perhaps the Spirit of God continues to love us, and Bobbie and Bill are channels of that Mercy. In any case: what a marvelous thing Bill and Jim Huffstutler crafted 35 years ago! Hoping to find ways to celebrate this and share the joy, and invite others to continue to invest in the beauty and welcome of this place, planted where the needs are so great.

When your bills are due, that doesn't provide much comfort. The same goes for FPCSB. Our budget is created each year based on your pledges. Even when pledges are not fulfilled on a consistent basis, the bills still come due. If perhaps you've fallen behind, please consider bringing it current. Or, better yet, look into the possibility of using Bill Pay with your financial institution. You can also go to FPCSB.NET, to set up automatic debits. Thank you for your support of God's work through First Presbyterian Church San Bernardino.

The Summer 2019 Internship Program

The new summer internship team's first day was Friday, June 14, 2019. They worked on preparing for Food Distribution the next day. They put food into the first bag, unloaded trucks and then bagged the second bags. Our interns had not had the opportunity to work on the day we prepare for Food Distribution before. The following day they worked on Food Distribution.

Above is our summer team of interns. Starting on the front of left side are Jesus, Marlene, Elvira, Cassandra and Jaelynn. On the right side are Isely and Gaby. Both Mark and I consider it an honor to work with these exceptional young people.

Our interns are looking forward to getting some work done around the church campus and learning some new skills. If you see any of our interns around the church campus, say "Hi!".

A Day of Sailing

I had the privilege to be invited to a day of sailing hosted by church members, Nancy and Jon Horstmann, in San Pedro on June 22, 2019. To say I had a good time would be an understatement. The weather was perfect and breezy, although the breeze made the sailing itself a bit tricky. Jon and Nancy showed us the ropes to handling the sails and even let us drive the boat! We had a lovely lunch together at the local diner, Grinder, and checked out some of the memorial statues and murals of the Cabrillo Way Marina.

Nancy Horstmann holding it down!

Jon Horstmann adjusting the sail EPICALLY!

Jon navigating as Jean Luc Nicks drives the boat

A view of the shimmering Pacific

It was so special and out of the norm for us young folk to have a nice nautical moment, truly a Saturday to remember. But what will stick with me the most is getting to know Jon and Nancy and the other trip participants. First Presbyterian of San Bernardino is so special in the way that it brings together people of different socioeconomic backgrounds and stages in life and feel like genuine family and friends. Thank you Jon, Nancy, and FPCSB! Let's do more trips like this real soon :) I'd like to end this article with a passage from Walt Whitman's "Crossing Brooklyn Ferry" because I think it encapsulates the transcendent emotions I felt on the trip:

"Flood-tide below me! I see you face to face!
Clouds of the west—sun there half an hour high—I see you also face to face....
And you that shall cross from shore to shore years hence are more to me, and more in my meditations, than you might suppose."

Presbyterian Women in the Congregation

By Claudia Oakes and Carol Valentine, Outgoing PW Co-Moderators

Our Spring Gathering, celebrating the 97th Birthday of PW, was a wonderful and happy evening. Our speaker and FPCPW member, Susan Skoglund, was terrific. We all knew Susan had been very active at all levels of PW, but what we didn't know was how involved she's been at the PW All Church level. We're talking being in the mix of planning and working at Church Wide Gatherings; even as the coordinator of all the workshops at the events; and she continues to be involved. We dedicated the Birthday Offering gifts in a meaningful worship service. Susan installed our 2019-2020 PW Leadership Team: Laurie Stafford – Moderator, Margaret Doane - Vice Moderator, Lynette DuClose Adelson - Secretary, Nancy Horstmann - Treasurer, Merry Beth Grindahl - Member-at-Large, Mission, Hunger, and Peace, and Mary Bolanos - Moderator, Search Committee (Watch for officer bios in the September newsletter). We approved three small Bylaw changes, and our new leader, Laurie, led us in the Presbyterian Women's Purpose to close the meeting. We gathered around the dessert tables and sang Happy Birthday to celebrate 97 years of PW! A good time was had by all!

On May 25th Robin Edwards, representing our PW, presented three scholarships to three bright, hard working, well rounded, interesting, and very deserving SBHS students. They are Lucia Vejar, Omar Santana, and Bryan Rosales. We awarded each a $300 gift card from the school they will be attending in the fall to put towards books and supplies. Two will be attending CalState San Bernardino, and the third will be at Riverside City College. One of considerations we like to make is that our recipients will be attending local schools. For more details see the PW bulletin board in Fellowship Hall.

PW does not meet for Circles in July or August, but will come back in September to our Circles for Bible Study and to prepare for our year ahead. Again, we say thank you to our amazing and dedicated members, and to you our congregation, for the tremendous support you all give us year after year. Have a wonderful summer! See you in church!

We are looking forward to the PWS Summer Conference at Chapman University: July 19-21, 2019—Registration began in April. See your Circle Moderators for informational fliers. Or contact Claudia Oakes at reunionlady@gmail.com to have info sent to you. If you're going for the three-day experience it's wonderful beyond words, but if you can only attend one day, the Saturday is filled with speakers, workshops, and lots of singing and fun. This is a great time to expand your knowledge of Presbyterian Women and learn what other PW's are doing across our Synod.

The first Sunday of the month Fair Trade Coffee Sales continue. Know your PWCT is working to keep you up to date on what's happening, and what is out into the future.

Circle members, please be sure you have your 2019-2020 study guide.

The theme, "The Ten Commandments," begins in September.

Session Highlights -- Wednesday, June 26, 2019

Pastor Tice opened the meeting with prayer and a thought piece reminding us Jesus is the light of world—sometimes a difficult concept to embrace given current problems faced by humanity.

After a diligent review of the agreement developed by the Leonard family for the Leonard scholarship, it was discovered after all current scholarship obligations are met, funds exceeding the corpus could be used to cover the $72,000 cost for the new sanctuary roof. The legacy of the family lives on!

The consent agenda was approved. Items of note included as of May; pledge receipts are down by $15,000. As you can, please bring your pledge up to date, or consider adding a bit more to the offering.

The property at 1875 North “D” has not been sold. A small committee will meet to consider other options.

Lynette DuClos Adelson is working on issues related to recent influx of immigrants to San Bernardino by Customs and Border Patrol. As yet, the impact is unknown.

As reported in April, a firm has been engaged to conduct a review of our current financial practices. The firm recently experience a computer crash, thus delaying the report.

Deacons have requested approval to provide flu shots on a third Saturday food distribution day, and to conduct a blood drive. Both initiatives were approved by Session.

Nancy Horstmann is chairing the 2020 nominating committee. If you would like to serve in a leadership role or know someone who would, please contact Nancy.

The meeting closed with extinguishing of the Christ candle.

If you would like more information on any of these items, please contact a current Ruling Elder (see page 2).

With much love and blessings,

John Garten-Shuman, Elder

Nominating Committee at Work

“There are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are varieties of service, but it is the same Lord, there are varieties of working but it is the same God who inspires them all in every one. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good...” 1 Cor. 12:4-7

Our nominating committee has begun work in earnest.

This is what we believe about the nomination process:

- That all the leadership resources we need are already in this community.
- That God is already at work in some hearts and lives, preparing people to receive a call from us and respond in faith.
- That God is eager to help us to discover and invite those people.
- That if we call the right people, it will be a gift to them, and not a burden. If they are called by God, they will be stretched and blessed in serving in these roles- they will grow in connection to God and to this family of faith, and the gifts that God has given them will be used to bless and heal and build!!

Over the next months, the committee will be prayerfully discerning who might be ready to serve. They will look at the needs of the congregation, the gifts of the people already on Session, and the gifts people might bring to serve. They will discern where and how God might be working. And they will ask people to serve.

What can you do? Pray for the committee as they look for gifted ministers within the congregation, and, if you are asked, prayerfully consider whether this is the right time to offer your gifts to this congregation in this way.

Nominating Committee: Nancy Horstmann, Lynette DuClos Adelson, Sally Morris, Mindy Rueda, Brad Smith

Child Care Center Staff Offer Us Their Gifts by LYNETTE DuCLOS ADELSON

1 Corinthians 12:7-11 To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

The gifts of the Spirit given to this congregation include wisdom and knowledge. First Presbyterian, San Bernardino has always attracted and encouraged educators! We share this gift tangibly with our support of education of the infants in our child care center through those receiving Leonard Scholarships for college. We support students, families, institutions and teachers. I'd like to remind you of a few of the teachers we support and to whom we owe a great debt as we seek to live our mission in this neighborhood.

First Presbyterian Child Care Center opened in 1991. Because those who work in early childhood education carry huge responsibility for very little pay, most child care centers experience high teacher burnout and turnover. (continued on next page)

It is common that a three year old would have had half a dozen or more teachers in those first bonding years. Not so at FPCCC. One of the most impressive and unusual qualities of our center is that our teachers stay. And stay. Children who meet Carly and Lolita at six weeks of age delight in hugging them as the children move off to kindergarten.

Shortly after we opened, Donna Bacon brought her daughters for child care as she and her husband looked for new jobs. It wasn't long before Donna's love of teaching young children was rekindled and she returned to the career she had trained for by joining the FPCCC staff. She has been part of that staff since 1995! Donna teaches the older three year olds and has the special intuitive vision of seeing the whole child and addressing that child's physical, emotional and cognitive needs.

Lolita Santiago got her Master's degree in the Philippines and brought her education, her gentle spirit, her dedication to order and cleanliness and her love of babies to FPCCC in 1996. FPCCC didn't serve infants at that time so Lolita worked with our Toddler Option program. She was a big influence and an even bigger help in the planning, licensing and start-up of the Infant Program. For the last twenty years Lolita has served this congregation and the youngest of God's children with tender care.

Christina Balog had taught at St. Anne's preschool for 17 years when they closed their doors. She filled out applications at every church related child care center in the area. Chris took jobs at several and was unhappy with the leadership, staffing and care given. When she was offered the job of teaching the two year old class at FPCCC she was hesitant. She had never done potty training and was leery of another church related center. When Chris began in 2003 she fell in love with the bright, spacious classrooms, the helpful staff and the congregational support. One of Chris' special gifts is her deep faith. She stops at the chapel at Holy Rosary many evenings to pray for the children in her care and for their families.

Sally Earp was still in high school at SBHS in 2000 when she became the aide and then the lead teacher of our After School Program. She brought stability and creativity to the lives of children who would have spent their afternoons alone or with older siblings. Sally eventually became the pre-kindergarten assistant and then teacher even as she got her degree from CSUSB. Sally thinks outside the box and tailors class time to fit the needs and personality of her class. She recognizes the huge difference between a classroom of children who have been in child care since birth and love reading and art and one filled with those who are leaving home for the first time and have abundant energy and 'feelings'! Sally was the FPCCC Assistant Director, in addition to her teaching, for several years. She was an excellent listener for the rest of the staff and carried questions and concerns to the Director. When Sally became FPCCC Director in 2016 she inherited a center that had almost completely changed from one where stay-at-home moms brought their children for half day enrichment programs to one where most of the enrollees were on a county or state payment program and all children came full days. She inherited a center in a city and neighborhood that was in tough financial times. Sally continues to teach the pre-kindergarten class and do all of the administrative work required by the state and the food program. She does all of this with creativity, alertness to needs, calm and steadiness.

Carly Earp didn't join the staff until 2004! In the fifteen years that she has worked at FPCCC she has done a bigger variety of jobs and worked crazier hours than any other staff member. She is the FPCCC cook, has worked in the office and in every classroom. Carly left us for awhile to get her degree at CSU Monterey Bay. She returned with new ideas, the ability to teach sign language to babies and to educate the staff about new techniques and studies in early childhood education. Carly brings a love of music to the classroom. Infant dance parties are not unusual! She also makes sure that the children in her care spend time in nature. You will see infants and toddlers riding in the giant stroller (donated years ago by the Bolin family) or walking around the campus enjoying breezes, trees, flowers and birds. Another of Carly's gifts is the gentle, subtle, loving way she teaches parents. Sharing her techniques, asking questions, texting or emailing photos during the day and making sure each parent knows that they are the most important person in their child's life make time at home and time at FPCCC flow smoothly for each child.

Yes, this congregation has been given gifts and has used those gifts generously so that the fruits of the Spirit who gave them are visible! Thanks be to God and to the teachers who make this mission possible.

Galatians 5:22b-23a the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

A Word from your Commissioned Local Pastor

Summer at First Presbyterian Church of San Bernardino

As I am writing this, we have just finished Hymn Sing Sunday. We sang with joy hymns chosen by members, randomly selected by Music Director Curtiss Allen from slips of paper in a hat, lovingly prepped by Rebecca Allen. We sang new hymns and old, hymns we sing frequently and ones we rarely hear. We welcomed the morning, gathered at the river, and were called to act with justice. It was a surprising and joyful morning, followed by cake to celebrate Pastor Sandy's summer birthday and ice cream from the deacons.

I have the slips of paper from the hat, so if your song was not selected this morning, expect that it might show up in our summer worship (though you have to come every week to hear all the songs).

As our summer season of Ordinary Time continues, we will see the work of the people. Through July, choir members will offer their solo or special group gifts of song each week as the choir enjoys a Summer Sabbath. We are grateful to these musicians who offer their gifts.

We met in the Fellowship Hall this morning so that we could sit near one another as we sang together. We will be back in the sanctuary for the remainder of July and then move into the Fellowship Hall for August 4-September 1. This cuts our cooling bill as we heat only one (smaller) space and allows us to have some "summer experiments" in seating.

In August, choir will resume with Summer Choir. There will be no Thursday evening rehearsals. If you would like a chance to sing choral music, come at 9:30 to rehearse with the choir and sing in worship that morning. There is no commitment required. You may come 1, 2, 3, or 4 times. Come sing in the summer! Come with your family. Middle and High School youth are encouraged to try this out.

The month of July also offers a chance to hear different voices in worship.

July 7: I will be preaching and Stephanie Fletcher will offer the gift of song. We will celebrate the sacrament of communion.

July 14: The Reverend Rob Stewart will preach. Rob is a retired Presbyterian pastor who lives in the desert. Kathy Showman will offer the gift of song. After worship, we will break bread together with the Deacon's Potluck and hear our guest speaker.

July 21: Pastor Emeritus, the Reverend Jim Huffstutler, will preach. The Riverside Threshold Choir (with member Mary Bolaños) will sing.

July 28: Pastor Sandy Tice returns and will lead worship while the Reverend Brucer Meyer will preach. Amy Gano will offer the gift of music.

Summer is a time to try new things and hear new voices. It is a chance for the people to continue to work together to bring our worship to God. It is a time when we travel and experience other things, but also come back refreshed and with fresh eyes to see and ears to hear. As your commissioned local pastor, it is my privilege to see the work of the people and the work of the spirit alive in our community each day. It is a blessing and I am grateful.

May God bring you home rejoicing at the wonders God has shown you,

~Wendy

Wendy's Summer Challenge: Worship Wherever you Are

If you are out of town on a Sunday morning, find a place to worship. Go as a worshiper (of course), but also as an inquirer. What do you notice? What do you wonder? Come back and tell me (Wendy) about your experience.

Most Presbyterian services will feel familiar. United Church of Christ (UCC) services may (or may not) be less formal, but they are also Reformed, and many of the elements will be similar to what we do. A Lutheran or Episcopal church may be more formal and more liturgical, particularly around communion.

Other denominations (or non-denominational communities) may feel quite different to you. You might see what that's like. (Even if you stay in town, try your own summer experiment and attend a different local church for a week, just to see.)

There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to the one hope of your calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all and in all. Ephesians 4:4-6

Check this out: <https://shipoffools.com/mystery-worshipper/> (You don't have to be a Mystery Worshipper, but it might be fun.)

FOOD MINISTRY NEEDS YOUR HELP !!

Do you have a truck? Or an SUV? Maybe a sedan where the back seat drops down?

The Need - vehicles to be driven to the warehouse of Feeding America in Riverside to pick up the products to stock our Food Closet at the church.

How do I know what to get at the warehouse? Marilyn Kraft places an order by computer from the Church. The warehouse places the ordered products on a pallet and delivers that pallet by forklift to your vehicle and you off-load the products onto your vehicle.

All by myself? No... two "shoppers" go to F/A each week and work together to load their vehicles.

How often would I be needed? Two trips everythree or four months spreads out the responsibilityamong the 20 to 25 volunteers.

What happens when I get back to the Church?You off-load the products onto the church carts and into the Food Closet and South Storage (room to the left of the stage). James is a willing helper in this last part of your journey (Mon.-Thurs.)

How long will it take each time? Shoppers report 2 ½ to 3 hours including driving time. Most like to leave home at 9:00 a.m. to avoid rush-hour traffic.

The Rewards? "Feed my sheep," Jesus said.

Call Sally Morris for questions.
